

HAROLD "H.T." HOLDEN

H.T. Holden, who lives in Kremlin, Oklahoma, is not only well-known for his magnificent paintings of the West but is famous for detail in his sculpting. Some of his public monuments and their locations include:

"Cool Water"

© H. Holden

"Boomer," Enid, Oklahoma; "The Rancher," Ranching Heritage Center, Lubbock, Texas; and "Crossing the Red," Altus, Oklahoma; to name a few. Holden who has been named Gilgrease Rendezvous Sculptor for the year 2002 and has a life-time achievement award from the Oklahoma Sculptor Society, is represented in several galleries in Oklahoma and New Mexico. His work has been featured on Western Horseman's Magazine, Cowboy Magazine, and The Quarter Horse Journal; and his artwork for the U.S. Postal Service for the 1993 Cherokee Strip Commemorative Postage Stamp brought awareness of Oklahoma's heritage to others outside the state.

HAROLD "H.T." HOLDEN

“Trapped”

© H. Holden

---

REQUIRED SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

---